Hi Hayley

Further to our conversation earlier today, I can confirm that I have now reviewed the application documents and consultation responses. While I have not yet read all of the representations, my assessment so far indicates that my recommendation will be for approval.

As discussed, approval cannot be granted under delegated powers so my recommendation would need to be presented to the Planning Committee. With this in mind, please confirm whether you agree to an extended decision deadline of Friday 28 June, which accounts for a Planning Committee meeting date of Wednesday 26th.

Kind regards

Luke
