

The Association of Electoral Administrators

Annotated nomination papers – Principal Areas – England

1 Introduction

- 1.1 The nominations process is a key element in the administration of elections, and at scheduled local government elections there can be numerous nomination papers to process from multiple candidates/agents with varying levels of experience.
- 1.2 This document, which includes annotated nomination forms, has been produced as a guide for Returning Officers, their deputies, and any staff appointed to assist with the checking of nomination papers. The notes cover points that commonly cause confusion or difficulty, which staff can refer to when checking that a nomination paper is completed properly.
- 1.3 The examples given in this document take account of the reduction in the number of subscribers required for elections taking place on and after 4 May 2023.

Appendix A – Example of correctly completed nomination paperwork	15-21

2 Process and forms

2.1 Generally, there are three documents that all candidates must submit to make their nomination valid:

- Nomination form
- Home Address form
- Consent to nomination

These forms must be delivered by hand, must be originals not copies and anything received by email/fax will not be valid.

2.2 Candidates standing on behalf of a registered political party will also need to submit:

- a certificate of authorisation
- an emblem request form (if they want an emblem on the ballot paper)

These can be delivered by hand or by post but must be originals and anything received by email/fax will not be valid.

2.3 Candidates may also submit an agent appointment form, which is not required to determine their nomination, and does not necessarily need to be submitted at the same time as the other nomination forms. However, it does have the same deadline. Where a candidate does not submit an agent appointment form, they will become their own election agent by default.

2.4 Any issues which are unclear when processing nominations must be escalated to the Returning Officer.

2.5 It is good practice to informally check nomination papers before their formal submission. This can allow candidates or agents to make any corrections or complete new nomination forms as necessary.

2.6 After informally checking nomination papers, and any issues have been addressed, candidates should be invited to formally submit the nomination paper. It is at that point that staff should record the date and time received, and number the form(s) in the order in which they are submitted.

2.7 Once a nomination has been formally submitted a candidate cannot amend any details. But if a candidate changes their mind and they no longer want to stand for election, they can withdraw until 4pm on the 19th working day before the poll.

4 Annotated forms

- 4.1 These annotated forms cover areas that commonly cause confusion or difficulty, which staff can refer to when checking that a nomination paper is completed properly. Notes have been added to draw attention to the areas where candidates may have questions or made errors, and to remind staff where they need to add details.

The Association of Electoral Administrators

Form 1a – Nomination paper (header)

This section should be completed by RO staff when the form is formally submitted

Number the form sequentially in order of delivery/processing. Where an agent has brought in several forms for the same electoral area, ask them in what order they want them to be processed.

The division or ward in which the candidate is standing should be added here.

1a – Nomination paper		Office use only
Local government election in England		Date received	Time received	Initials	No
*ELECTION OF COUNCILLORS / A COUNCILLOR for the electoral division/ward of the	Clearvale
county/district/London borough of *Delete whichever is inappropriate	Southmarsh
Date of election:	4 May 2023

The name of the council should be given here.

E.g., if the candidate is standing for a ward in Southmarsh District Council, 'Southmarsh' should be added here.

If the candidate has put the council's name in full this would not invalidate the nomination.

It has not been pre-printed; the date of the election should be given.

Should be deleted as necessary, e.g., if there is more than one vacancy in the division/ward.

The Association of Electoral Administrators

Form 1a – Nomination paper (Candidate’s details)

The Candidate’s details section must be completed in full before any electors sign the nomination paper

Full names must be added here – no initials.

Prefixes (e.g., Sir) or suffixes (e.g., Snr) must not be used.

It is not vital that this is completed

Titles will not appear on the ballot paper or other notices.

Should be deleted as necessary.

We, the undersigned, being local government electors for the said electoral division/ward, do hereby nominate the under-mentioned person as a candidate at the said election

Candidate’s Details
Candidate’s surname	Smith	Mr/Mrs/Miss/ Ms/Dr/Other
Other forenames in full	Joseph
Commonly used surname (if any)
Commonly used forenames (if any)	Jo
Description (if any) Use no more than six words (see note 5)	Gold party candidate

The description may be left blank.

OR the candidate could use the description ‘Independent’.

OR - for political party candidates, they would need to enter the registered party name or description as authorised by the party. This must be as registered with the Electoral Commission, and must match EXACTLY with the description authorised on Form 2 – the Certificate of Authorisation.

It is important to read the EC guidance if a description is used.

This is optional.

If the candidate is commonly known by a different name to their actual name, this/these should be entered here.

The commonly used name will then appear on the ballot paper and the Statement of Persons Nominated instead of the actual name.

Usually, you will take the commonly used name at face value, but it may be rejected if it is obscene or offensive, or its use could mislead or confuse electors.

It is important to read the EC guidance if a commonly used name is used.

The form must be signed by two registered electors, a proposer and seconder from the relevant division/ward.

If you are publishing the NOE early, you can assist candidates/agents with elector numbers providing they tell you the full name and address of the subscribers.

Each subscriber must sign the nomination form in the signature column. Their name must be printed too, preferably in capitals and does not have to match the name as printed in the register.

An elector must not sign more nomination papers than there are vacancies in the division/ward.

The details of the subscribers should be input into the election management software to check that they are registered, and no subscriber has signed more forms than permitted.
